GENDER ISSUES : DIMENSIONS & DEVELOPMENTS IN THE CONTEMPORARY SCENARIO

Gender sensitivity or inclusiveness of women has been well established as the central concern of academic engagements in almost all the disciplinary arenas. The domain of history too witnessed endeavours to reconstruct and deconstruct events and processes from gender perspectives during the recent decades. These studies have generally focussed on exploring the ideological, socio-cultural and economic dimensions within gender categories and identify the social processes leading to the marginalization of women at different historical epochs
