

Action Taken Report based on the feedback from students, teachers, parents and alumni 2020-21

Feedback from the stakeholders is an important component in improving the quality of the teaching-learning process. The feedback from students, teachers, alumni and parents is collected at the end of each academic year and it is analysed by the IQAC and taken into consideration while designing the quality improvement measures in the college. The college appreciates these suggestions and does essential changes accordingly.

The college always provides a healthy ambience for improving the learning atmosphere of the students and the teaching mode is student-friendly. The College Union and the departments organize arts and cultural programmes to develop the holistic development of the students and it reflects the cultural vigour and artistic temperament of the campus. The extracurricular activities in the college offer the students the opportunity to improve their life skills. The college provides ample opportunity to foster the life skills of the students. The achievements of the college are supported by the indoor stadium, vast sports ground and synthetic tennis court. The students as well as the public general public can utilise these facilities. The work of the indoor stadium is in progress and it will be soon available for practice.

The college library now functions at the newly constructed building with 37390 books, 27 journals Nlist e-journal and e-book database and uses ko ha library automation software and INFLIBNET.

The college tries to maintain good infrastructure facilities for the students using various funds. The newly installed drinking water facilities for the students in the new block are an alumni-funded project. The proposal for the men's hostel is already submitted and The construction of the Girl's Hostel is almost finished and will function soon. New and clean toilets are constructed in needy places including examination centres Girls friendly MIT Centre is there on the campus. In order to maintain a hygienic and healthy environment, the canteen service is performed by the Kudumbasree.
