

Dr. Bindu Sharmila T K has recently taken on the esteemed role of Principal at KKTM Govt. College, located in Pullut, Kodungallur. Her academic journey commenced in 2006 within the realm of Collegiate Education. Throughout her career, she has contributed her expertise to various institutions, including Kerala Government Polytechnic College Kozhikode, T M Jacob Memorial Govt. College Manimalakunnu, and as an Associate Professor in the Department of Chemistry at Maharaja's College Ernakulam since 2015. Her commitment to educational excellence was further demonstrated in her tenure as the Vice Principal of Maharaja's College from November 2022 until 25th August 2023. Dr. Sharmila possesses a Doctoral Degree in Chemistry, where her passion for research has predominantly centered around hybrid nanomaterials. With over seventeen years of combined experience in academia and research, she has consistently demonstrated her dedication to advancing knowledge. Her scholarly contributions extend to numerous publications in well-regarded international journals. Her research pursuits span an array of captivating areas, encompassing polymer nanocomposites, nanotechnology, molecular frameworks, and material science. Furthermore, her accomplishments extend to the academic realm, as she holds the esteemed position of a recognized research guide in Chemistry at Mahatma Gandhi University. In her pursuit of academic and intellectual growth, she has made noteworthy presentations at both international and national conferences, thereby contributing to the dissemination of cutting-edge research.