Date: 2-12-2022; Time 11.00 a. m

Event: Training on Rooftop Farming for Students

Location: Roof top near Zoology Lab

The program aimed to educate and empower students with the knowledge and skills necessary to engage in sustainable agricultural practices, particularly focusing on rooftop farming as a viable urban agriculture solution. The programme was jointly organized by Department of Zoology and Bhoomitrasena club.

Mr. Prasad N K, Assistant Professor of Zoology, extended a warm welcome to all attendees. His welcoming remarks underscored the significance of the training program in equipping students with practical skills and knowledge relevant to contemporary agricultural practices. The program had a formal inauguration ceremony, which was led by Mr. Sreenivas Shenoy, a renowned agriculturalist. Mr. Shenoy's inaugural address emphasized the importance of rooftop farming in addressing food security challenges, particularly in urban areas. He provided valuable insights into the benefits and techniques of rooftop farming, setting the stage for an enriching learning experience. A hands on training was also provided for the students. Dr. Shaji E M, Associate Professor and Head of the Department of Zoology addressed the students during the occasion and emphasized on the role of student community in driving positive change in agriculture.

Forty students from various departments participated in the programme. Dr. Seema Menon, Assistant Professor of Zoology, delivered a heartfelt vote of thanks, expressing gratitude to all individuals involved in making the event a success.
