

RESEARCH COMMITTEE ACTIVITY REPORT

2025-26

1. Programmes:

a) One-Day Workshop On New Trends In Research Writing

Organised by: Journal Committee, Research Committee, & IQAC of KKTG Government College, Pullut.

Date: 14th August 2025

Venue: Seminar Hall, KKTG Government College, Pullut.

Aim: To equip modern researchers, scholars, and faculty members with contemporary strategies and tools essential for high-quality academic publishing and advanced research methodologies.

Total no: of participants: 100

The poster is divided into several sections. At the top left, it features the NAAC logo and the KKTG Government College logo. Below these, the college's name is written. To the right, there is a large graphic of a human head with gears and various scientific and technological icons inside, representing research and innovation. The central text area, on a light blue background, announces the workshop organized by the Journal & Research Committees in association with IQAC. It lists two sessions: Session 1 with Dr. Surendran Cherukodan as the speaker, and Session 2 with Dr. Amal Thomas K. as the speaker. Each session has a brief description of its topic. At the bottom, contact information for the coordinators is provided.

Sessions:

Inaugural Session

The workshop commenced with a formal inaugural session bringing together key coordinators, institutional heads, and research scholars.

- Welcome Speech: Dr. Seema Menon, Coordinator of the Research Committee, formally welcomed the dignitaries, resource persons, and participants, setting the context for the day's learning.
- Presidential Address: Ms. Sajitha P G, Coordinator of the Journal Committee, delivered the presidential address, highlighting the significance of staying updated with shifting trends in scholarly publishing.
- Inauguration: The workshop was officially inaugurated by Prof. (Dr.) Bindu Sharmila T K, Principal of KKTU Government College, Pullut, who emphasized the institution's commitment to fostering a robust research culture.
- Felicitation: Dr. Lovely George, the IQAC Coordinator, offered felicitations and praised the collaborative initiative for its relevance to academic quality enhancement.
- Vote of Thanks: The inaugural session concluded with a vote of thanks expressed by Mr. Felbin Antony, a Research Scholar at the institution.

Technical Sessions

The workshop was divided into two comprehensive, subject-focused technical sessions:

Session 1: Selection of High-Quality Journals

- Time: 10:30 am – 12:30 pm
- Resource Person: Dr. Surendran Cherukodan, Assistant Librarian, Cochin University of Science and Technology (CUSAT).
- Topic: Strategies for Selecting High-Quality Journals in Research
- Key Highlights: This session guided participants through the intricacies of evaluating journal metrics, indexing databases (such as Scopus and Web of Science), identifying predatory journals, and aligning research manuscripts with the right publication channels to maximize global reach and citation impact.

Session 2: AI Tools for Modern Research

- Time: 1:45 pm – 3:45 pm
- Resource Person: Dr. Amal Thomas K, Assistant Professor, Department of Artificial Intelligence & Data Science, Royal College of Engineering & Technology (RCET), Thrissur.
- Topic: AI Unlocked: Tools for the Modern Researcher
- Key Highlights: The final session delved into the digital transformation of research. It explored various artificial intelligence tools that streamline literature reviews, data organization, syntax optimization, and formatting, while training participants on the ethical boundaries and best practices of using AI in mainstream research writing.

Conclusion

The workshop successfully met its objectives by bridging the gap between traditional research expectations and modern digital advancements. The insights provided by the expert speakers effectively equipped the attendees with the practical knowledge required to elevate the standard of their future academic outputs.

Intellectual Property Rights (IPR) refer to the legal protections granted to creators and inventors for their Intellectual creations. These include patents, copyrights, trademarks, industrial designs, and geographical indications. For research scholars and postgraduate (PG) students, awareness of IPR is extremely important for academic growth, innovation, and professional development, envisaging the protection of research innovations, safeguarding academic publications, commercialization and entrepreneurship and enhancing career opportunities. In this context, we are glad to announce the One Day Training Programme “IPR- The armour of creativity”- on Intellectual Property Rights with special emphasis on its implementation in research.....

KKTm GOVT. COLLEGE, PULLUT

KSCSTE, THIRUVANANTHAPURAM

Inaugural Session (9:30 AM – 10:00 AM)

The programme commenced with a formal inaugural session. The welcome address was delivered by Dr. Seema Menon, Research Committee Coordinator and Assistant Professor, Department of Zoology, who emphasized the importance of IPR awareness among research scholars and students.

The programme was officially inaugurated by Prof. (Dr.) Bindu Sharmila T. K., Principal of the college, who highlighted the significance of protecting intellectual creations in the modern research landscape.

Felicitation addresses were given by Prof. (Dr.) G. Ushakumari, Vice Principal and Dr. Prasad N K, IQAC member, who appreciated the initiative and stressed the need for integrating IPR knowledge into academic and research activities.

The inaugural session concluded with a vote of thanks by Dr. Nija S, Member of the Research Committee.

Technical Sessions

Technical Session I (10:00 AM – 11:15 AM)

The first technical session on “Overview of Intellectual Property Rights” was handled by Adv. Febin James, Advocate & Partner, M/s Legalites IP Services, Thrissur. The session provided a comprehensive introduction to various forms of intellectual property such as patents, copyrights, trademarks, and industrial designs. The speaker elaborated on the importance of IPR in safeguarding innovations and fostering creativity.

Technical Session II (11:30 AM – 12:45 PM)

The second session on “Patentability of Inventions and Patent Filing Procedures” was led by Ms. Chaithanya P.C., Project Scientist-I, Patent Information Centre – Kerala, KSCSTE, Thiruvananthapuram. The session focused on criteria for patentability, including novelty, inventive step, and industrial applicability. Detailed insights into the patent filing process in India, documentation, and common challenges faced by researchers were also discussed.

Technical Session III (1:30 PM – 2:45 PM)

The third session on “Copyrights and Trademarks – Case Studies” was presented by Adv. Manju A.B, Associate Partner, Altacit Global, Kochi. The speaker used real-life case studies to explain the practical implications of copyright and trademark laws. The session highlighted issues such as infringement, legal remedies, and the importance of brand protection.

Conclusion (2:45 PM – 3:00 PM)

The programme concluded with an interactive session and feedback from participants. The training programme was highly informative and beneficial, equipping attendees with essential knowledge about intellectual property protection and its relevance in academic research and innovation.

Overall Outcome

The programme successfully achieved its objective of enhancing awareness about Intellectual Property Rights among students, researchers, and faculty members. It provided practical insights into patent filing, copyright protection, and trademark registration, thereby encouraging participants to safeguard their intellectual contributions effectively.
